2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Kilcolman N.S. is a Catholic co-educational primary school with a Catholic ethos. The Bishop of Limerick, Breandán Leahy is the Patron of this school.

'Catholic schools are communities which are open, welcoming and inclusive. Therefore, Catholic schools may include children who adhere to other religions or other stances for living. While mindful of their duty to educate in the distinctive beliefs, values, and practices of the Catholic community, teachers will bear witness to an attitude of respect for and appreciation of all'.

'The Catholic Preschool & Primary Religious Education Curriculum p15'

'Catholic Ethos' in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church (which is established in connection with the Minister), which aims at promoting:

- the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects and a living relationship with God and with other people
- The school models and promotes a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus.
- Kilcolman N.S. as a Catholic school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and tradition of the Roman Catholic Church and the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith
- The ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Kilcolman National School shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

Our school is a Catholic School with a Catholic Ethos. Non Catholic pupils attending our school are respectfully given the freedom to adhere to their own beliefs and practices.

Our aim is to create an environment where each child is valued as a person and is provided with a variety of opportunities enabling her to live as a child and developing all aspects of the person; spiritual, emotional, moral, social, intellectual, cultural and physical.

The 'ethos' of Kilcolman N.S. encompasses collective attitudes, beliefs, core values, traditions, aspirations and goals. These are reflected in the actual practices which are carried out in the school on a daily, weekly and yearly basis.

While it is impossible to outline all aspects of the school 'ethos', the following characteristics are experienced and promoted as essential elements in the establishment of a supportive and positive 'ethos'.

1. We seek to develop in the child a positive self-image and a respectful caring attitude towards others.
2. We encourage each child to take an active part in her own development on all levels so that she can:

- enjoy being at school and contribute to making school life a good experience for all.
 - be ready and able to benefit from second level education.
 - go on to take her place in society as a happy fulfilled and responsible adult.
3. Since teaching/learning is a collaborative effort we involve parents, teachers, pupils and the wider community.
 4. We endeavour to challenge the gifted child and to give special support, care and attention to children with any level of additional needs
 5. In Kilcolman N.S., where the ethos is that of a Christian Catholic school, religious instruction, in accordance with the doctrine and tradition of the Catholic Church is part of the education given to children who belong to this Church.
 6. The pupils are prepared for the reception of the sacraments of First Holy Confession, First Holy Communion and Confirmation, in accordance with arrangements in the Diocese.
 7. Prayer is a feature of every school day.
 8. Throughout the school year thee pupils and staff frequently attend and actively participate in special masses to celebrate a variety of events eg: starting and finishing the school year, Grandparents' Day, St. Brigid's Day, Graduation of the 6th class, Feasts & Holy Days of Obligation (if the school is open on that day) etc.
 9. The school aims at promoting the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the pupil, including his / her relationship with God, with other people and with the wider community and with the environment.
 10. The Principal and teaching staff aim at maintaining high professional standards and creating a safe and happy environment.
 11. A spirit of mutual respect is promoted within the school community. Pupils are drawn by example and teaching to appreciate and respect people of different religious affiliations and of different nationalities.
 12. The ancillary staff in the school are highly esteemed and respected. It is recognised that their work makes a valued contribution to the process of education.

Mission Statement

We wish our school to be a place where pupils are happy and fulfilled motivated and challenged in a caring and secure environment. We wish our pupils to be socially conscious, spiritually aware and morally courageous with a keen sense of responsibility and respect for themselves and others.
